Let silent contemplation be our offering

When Keri and I travelled to Perth, WA recently we spent a few hours lying on the grass sward of King's Park enjoying the sunshine, the view and the break away from the shop!

King's Park is a magnet for locals and tourists alike. It is also the site of the state's war memorial and features several impressive commemorative monuments, walls of named soldiers who went away to serve and never returned, and a contemplative pool surrounding the Eternal Flame. The Eternal Flame bears this inscription "Let silent contemplation be your offering". In the midst of whanau, fun and freedom in this park, it was amazing how many folk actually stopped and paid their respects!

And now it is our turn! The Gallipoli campaign was waged by Allied troops in Turkey from 19 February 1915 to 9 January 1916. It was a costly failure for the Allies, with an estimated 27,000 French, and 115,000 British and dominion troops (Great Britain and Ireland, Australia, New Zealand, India, and Newfoundland) killed or wounded. New Zealand records show we lost 2779, with nearly 5000 more wounded.

April 25, 1915 marked New Zealand's soldiers first involvement in the campaign, along with Australia. Hence our memorial day, ANZAC Day, being observed on the 25th of April annually. 2025 marks 110 years since this most significant campaign in both countries' military history.

ANZAC Day all-weather memorial Dawn Services will be held in Pauanui and Tairua this Friday 25 April at 6am. The Pauanui service will be held at Pauanui Surf Club and the Tairua service will be held at Tairua Ex-Servicemen's Cemetery. Attendees are advised to gather for the services at 5.45am. These are the only civic services planned for our communities.

Let silent contemplation be our offering this year; lest we forget.
