Nearly time for Pauanui's Pink Walk

It's nearly time... Saturday the 27th is just around the corner and the preparations for the Pauanui Pink Walk are on track! Have you registered? How is your pink-themed costume looking?

Not sure what we're talking about? Starting from the Shopping Centre, the event is an opportunity to gather your friends and family in support Breast Cancer Foundation New Zealand, and join others in ambling along the 5.5km course which takes in some of the most beautiful scenes of Coromandel coastline.

The Walk is open to all ages and starts at 10am. It's set to go ahead, rain, hail or shine, and along the way, there are spot prizes to be won, and photo stations for you to snap a selfie or two. The course finishes at the Pauanui Club.

If you haven't entered yet, visit Facebook "Pauanui Pink Walk" and look for the link to an online registration page. Pauanui Information Centre is also taking registrations. Entry fees are $25 per adult and $10 for children under 15. All entry fees are a donation to the cause.

And the fun doesn't stop with the Walk! Local businesses have plenty of pink-themed specials across the whole weekend, from food, drinks, and dining out, to shopping and accommodation. Join the fun; "Let's Paint Pauanui Pink".

Daffodil Day success, thanks to all

By all accounts, Daffodil Day 2025 has been very successful in Pauanui and Tairua!

The day before Daffodil Day, a group of volunteers from Pauanui travelled to Cambridge to pick and sort daffodils for the fundraiser. On Daffodil Day (Friday 29 August) local volunteers were stationed outside Fresh Choice to receive donations and distribute the daffodils. Pauanui organiser Yana Silva said the total raised in Pauanui was $1,574.90.

In Tairua, the Cancer Society's Daffodil Day raised a total of $2,401! Fundraising efforts were spread over two days, Daffodil Day Friday and Saturday morning, to maximise impact. Tairua's organiser, Ros Rundle said, "It wouldn't have been possible without the help from local businesses who had counter collection boxes for the month of August, our wonderful volunteers, Rod Miller who donated the fresh daffodils and to everyone who donated so generously to the Cancer Society."

Ros also explained that the local community benefits from the national Cancer Society fundraiser because its cancer research and support to cancer sufferers throughout their treatment benefits all Kiwis.

In addition to the Cancer Society funds, there was another $502 raised for the local Tairua /Pauanui Care & Cancer Support Group from the cake and produce stall sales. Tairua /Pauanui Care & Cancer Support Group provides local practical support for those suffering and their families. This includes assisting with equipment such as wheelchairs, walkers, crutches, walking sticks, toilet frames and shower chairs. All input is to help the household function as normally as possible.

A number of people who couldn't make the fundraising stalls on 29 and 30 August may still want to donate to daffodil Day. If you would like to help, use the QR code in this article to make contact with the donation page for your contribution.
