Have your say on rates proposals

Thames Coromandel District Council (TCDC) is inviting ratepayers to have a say on the proposed measures being considered to keep our rates increases affordable.

This mayor and council were elected on the promise of keeping our rates affordable, so knowing that there are "tough choices" to be made ahead, council wants to know "what matters most to you?"

The status quo means we are looking at about a 13% rates increase. To reduce that figure something has to give. Four areas have been identified for our consideration. In each, a trade-off is offered. They are mowing and garden maintenance, changing hours at some Refuse and Recycling Transfer Stations, increasing fees and introducing new charges for some services, and reducing selected rates remissions.

The feedback process is already under way. We have until Tuesday 28 April to have our say.

For all the detail, go to www.tcdc.govt.nz/Our-Community/Have-Your-Say/Current-Consultations. Once you have digested the information, worked out your stance, and are ready to give your feedback you can do so online, using a downloaded print form or in person. If you have questions and want more detail, you could attend "Kai and Korero" sessions in Pauanui and Tairua on Tuesday 21 April or join an online "town hall" session on Teams at 7pm on Thursday 23 April. The TCDC website will provide a link closer to the time.
