Buy local and win in Tairua

Tairua Business Association (TBA) is about to launch a repeat of its very popular and successful "Buy Local" campaign! The campaign will run for a period of twelve weeks from 8 June, to encourage locals to support businesses right here in our community. And, to make it a win-win for everyone in town, over $2,500 worth of local vouchers is up for grabs! The campaign will be supported by a Coromandel-wide radio campaign on CFM, helping to spread the message far and wide.

Shoppers who make a purchase over $30, from a participating business, will get one entry into a fortnightly draw to win $150 worth of vouchers. If the purchase is greater than $60, it entitles the purchaser to one entry into a fortnightly draw to win $250 worth of vouchers. In addition, every entry is retained and goes into the Grand Prize Draw at the end of August to win $1,000 in vouchers! To enter, write your name and phone number on the back of your eligible receipt and drop it into the marked buckets at participating businesses. Make multiple purchases and enter multiple times!

Participating businesses are looking forward to your support throughout the campaign, especially as the quieter winter months roll around.

'Ello, 'ello, 'ello
A word from our local constabulary

Kia Ora Koutou,

The last couple of months have been steady and we have been doing a lot behind the scenes to hold offenders to account.

A drink driving operation around the Whitianga and Tairua area over one weekend ended with over 20 drivers caught driving over the limit. A very disappointing number.

A search warrant was executed at a Tairua address after multiple complaints were made of a motorbike being ridden through town in a reckless manner. The bike was impounded for 28 days and the owner who is a disqualified driver is now facing two charges of driving whilst disqualified.

A 39-year-old male in Tairua was arrested for Burglary after we conducted a search warrant at a property and recovered stolen items. Methamphetamine was also located at the address, and the matter is now before the courts.

Scamming is once again on the rise. One elderly Tairua resident was subject to being scammed several thousand dollars' worth after he had a call from an unknown person claiming to be his bank. A reminder to keep your details secure and not to be fooled by phishing texts, emails or calls.

We have been assisting our neighbouring stations with recent high-risk jobs including one in Turua where we assisted detectives, and the armed offender's squad with cordons, for a man wanted in connection with a stabbing. After a 5-hour stand-off, the suspect was taken into custody along with another occupant who had a warrant for his arrest.

You may have heard the Police association led campaign called 'Repay the Risk'. This is to acknowledge the risks Police take every day and the need for a fair pay offer from the Government that is proportionate to these risks. As Police we can not legally strike, but we ask our community to support this by advocating for us if you get the opportunity.

We have also been finding an increasing number of locals calling us directly on our cell phones, particularly after hours. This has a detrimental effect to not only our personal lives outside work but also to response times that are potentially urgent matters. 111 is the appropriate number to call for anything that requires Police attendance that is happening at the time. This goes through a streamlined process where it will get dispatched to the closest unit available or on-call at the time. Not only that, but if we get a call directly, we often miss crucial information. The level of our response takes a lot of factors into consideration, and a lot of that is overseen by our communication centres and command centres. Bypassing these systems often creates unnecessary risks, missed information, and will more than likely lead to a poorer response for you. We have no problem if you want to call us during normal work day hours to discuss low level issues but anything urgent or outside the scope of 9-5 needs to go through to 111. Thank you for your understanding. Stay Safe.

Tim & Dylan , Tairua Police
