Tickets selling fast for the hottest hoedown of the summer

The Tairua River Trail fundraisers have come up with a great event over summer! Trail trustee, Donna Brooke, has found a way to amalgamate her two current passions, the River Trail and the Salty Steppers line dancing group. Donna has pulled together the Tairua River Trail Country Festival, which will take place at Coroglen Tavern on Saturday 23 January from 3pm-8pm.

The Festival promises an afternoon of "boots, bands, BBQs, bulls and bargains". The family-friendly event will have something for the whole family, whether you fancy dancing, bargain buys at an auction, a beer or two, a BBQ, or even a ride on a mechanical bull! Donna is sure that the Festival will be a great drawcard for friends and family, as well as visitors to the area.

Tickets are now on sale at <https://events.humanitix.com/country-festival>. Earlybird pricing is available until 30 November at $45 per ticket, thereafter $55 online. Door sales on the day will cost $60. This event is already proving popular with early ticket sales. The hottest hoedown this summer will be the place to be!

All event proceeds will be going to the Tairua River Trail. The Trail is open along the south bank (Pauanui side) for 6.5km. On the north bank (Tairua side) a 2.8km section is under construction and expected to be completed over summer. And, the highlight for many, construction of the 120-metre suspension bridge across the Tairua River is due to start this summer too! The final section will be the 4.1km trail and boardwalk from Swampy Stream to Petley Parade in Tairua.

If you are keen to support the advancement of the Tairua River Trail, get your tickets to the Country Festival now, or visit tairuarivertrail.org to make a donation towards this wonderful asset to our area.
